CARRYING THE WAR TO THE AMERICAN COAST

Submarine from Germany Sunk Several Ships Off Nantucket Lightship Sunday

SEEMS TO HAVE GIVEN OPPORTUNITY TO ALL CREWS TO SECURE THEIR SAFETY—NUMBER OF VESSELS TAKING PART IN THE ATTACK NOT KNOWN

(Associated Press)

Newport, Oct. 9.—No confirmation had been received early this morning of latest reports that nine allied and neutral vessels had been sunk by a German submarine or submarines off Nantucket lightship yesterday. Six were sunk. There was no loss of life, it being reported that every vessel was warned.

The crew of the British steamer Kingston, which took to the boats, has not been reported picked up. The sea is calm and many destroyers are still in the vicinity. Two hundred and sixteen members of crews and passengers have been landed.

SEEMS TO HAVE BEEN TWO SUBS

Boston, Oct. 9.—With a few additional reports available today the story of submarine activity off Nantucket lightship yesterday was changed only slightly from the first stories received. If the Germans continued their work today, nothing has been heard of it and it seemed likely they are not sinking more ships.

Secretary Daniels informed the president that as far as he could ascertain all international laws had been observed. The navy department however is prepared to establish a patrol along the North Atlantic coast to see that American neutrality is observed. Six ships in all are positively known to have been sunk, although the commander of the destroyer Erickson reported he understood nine had gone.

No names of additional vessels are mentioned. The report that nine were sunk is from no other source. The only persons from the six vessels not accounted for was the crew of the Kingston which took to the boats. American destroyers have combed the calm sea.

Stories of the number of submarines differed widely but many believed there were two. It is assumed the U-53, which came to Newport Saturday was active. The survivors of one ship said they were certain they saw U-53 on another sub. As far as it is known only six torpedoes were fired. The U-53 carried eight.

AMERICAN DESTROYERS SAVED LIVES

Boston, Oct. 9.—The submarine arm of the Imperial German navy ravaged shipping off the eastern coast of the United States yesterday.

Four British, one Dutch and one Norwegian steamer were sent to the bottom or left crippled derelicts off Nantucket Shoals.

Last night, under the light of the hunter's moon, the destroyer flotilla of the United States Atlantic fleet was picking up passengers and crews of the destroyed vessels and bringing them into Newport, R. I.

CREW OF KINGSTON MISSING

So far as known, there was no loss of life, though at a late hour the crew of the British steamer Kingston had not been accounted for. A submarine held up the American steamer Kansas, bound from New York for Genoa, with steel for the Italian government, but later on establishing her identity allowed her to proceed. The Kansas came into Boston harbor late last night for her usual call here.

The hostile submarine is believed to be the U-53, which paid a call to Newport yesterday and disappeared at sunset. Some naval men, however, declared that at least two submarines are operating close to the American shore, though outside the three-mile limit.

SET THE PARTY SEAL

State Democratic Committee Endorsed Wilson, Knott, Clark and Taylor

Jacksonville, Oct. 8.—The state democratic executive committee convened yesterday pursuant to the call of Chairman George P. Raney of Tampa, forty-two counties being represented.

Hal Adams of LaFayette county, offered a resolution recommending the placing of the names of both Catts and Knott on the ballot to be voted on in the general election in November. This was ruled out of order by Chairman Raney, because the secretary of state alone is clothed with the power to certify the names of candidates to be printed on the ticket. On an appeal from the ruling the chair was sustained by a vote of thirty-one to ten.

J. B. Hodges of Lake City then offered a resolution that the committee take no action as to who was the regular democratic nominee for governor. He spoke at great length in support of his resolution, and when he closed E. W. Davis of Orange county offered a substitute resolution, calling upon the democrats of Florida to rally to the support of W. V. Knott as the regular democratic nominee for governor, Woodrow Wilson for president, R. F. Taylor for justice of the supreme court and Frank Clark for Congress from the second district. The substitute was adopted by a vote of 28 to 13.

The committee then adjourned. The campaign committee met after adjournment of the state committee and considered various matters relating to the campaign of the next five weeks in behalf of the democratic nominees.

SANFORD WANTS IT IN NINETEEN-SEVENTEEN

Sanford is working hard for the 1917 meeting of the Wesley Bible Class Federation which meets in Ocala this week, as was shown yesterday when five of the members of the Sanford class came to Ocala to boost Sanford for the meeting next year. These men, Dr. R. M. Mason, S. O. Shinholler, H. H. Peabody, Mr. Bronson and Mr. Hutchinson brought cards and ribbons with them to leave with the Ocala class, asking that they be given all the help possible to forward their movement.

The Sanford class had similar committees in DeLand, Kissimmee, Orlando, Winter Park and Daytona and all are working hard for the next meeting.

PRINCE-LUDWIG

Judge Wm. E. Smith was aroused from his peaceful slumbers at 2:30 Sunday morning by a party of young folks, two of whom insisted that they at once be made one. The judge arose from his couch and as soon as he could assume enough garments to make him a matrimonial knot as secure as any that could be drawn in a cathedral with forty-seven attendants and two thousand spectators. The young couple was Mr. Odell G. Prince and Miss Jessie L. Ludwig, who were accompanied by the bride's sister, Miss Myrtle Ludwig, Miss Evelina Chapman and Mr. J. D. Adamson. The party came in an auto and immediately after the wedding left presumably for their home in Gainesville.

PRESIDENT EXPECTS GERMANY TO KEEP PROMISES

It Appears that International Law Has So Far Been Observed

(Associated Press)

Long Branch, Oct. 9.—President Wilson, in commenting on the recent submarine activity off the American coast announced that the German government will "be held to a complete fulfillment of its promises" to the United States.

INTERNATIONAL LAW WAS OBSERVED

CRAWFORD HAS SENT COUNTIES INSTRUCTIONS

Saturday's Session of State Canvassing Board Ended Its Work for Nineteen-Sixteen

Tallahassee, Oct. 8.—Secretary of State Crawford last night sent out instructions to the various counties to place Knott's name on the ballot as the democratic nominee. Flounroy made another effort yesterday to reopen the case, but failed. Not satisfied with the decision against him Friday, Flounroy Saturday morning formally asked the supreme court for permission to amend his petition which was denied yesterday.

Secretary of State Crawford stated that he considered yesterday the last day and last night mailed out instructions for the printing of the ballots to the various counties. "Whoever was the nominee at the close of business yesterday will have his name printed on the ballots as such" said Mr. Crawford.

The socialists sent a petition to the secretary of state instead of holding a caucus, convention or primary, and Secretary Crawford wired them of their mistake. The petitions should not be sent to Tallahassee, but to the various boards of county commissioners.

Mitchell, the independent, of St. Petersburg, made the same error of sending his petitions to the secretary of state instead of to the county commissioners. Crawford has wired both the socialists and Mitchell what the law provides and stated that they had until twenty days prior to the election to get on the ticket in proper shape, but in both instances they must go through the county commissioners.

C. G. Allen and Mitchell may get on the ticket through the counties but not by order of the secretary of state. Mr. Crawford returned their petitions to them.

The name of George W. Allen went out in the instructions last night as the regularly nominated republican nominee, that party having had a convention. Catts will also go on the ticket as the nominee of the prohibition party. Catts also had petitions as an independent, but these must go through the counties.

Flounroy having failed in his last efforts yesterday, Knott will go on as the democratic nominee. Flounroy's amended petition for the writ compelling the state canvassing board to reconvene and canvass the Alachua county returns, including Catts' sixty-nine votes from precinct three, and such other amended returns from other counties as they deemed should be canvassed in the discretion of the board was denied at two o'clock by the supreme court, because it sought to make a judiciary body out of the canvassing board, whose duties are only perfunctory and who must can-

Petrograd reported the Russians have penetrated the Austro-German lines at several points on the Vladimir-Volski line.

Sofia's latest statement said that south of Monastir the Serbians have abandoned attempts to advance.
